With amazingly simple, practical exercises - and without physical exertion - your nervous system can be switched from stress, fight or flight to relaxation and regeneration. This can improve blood pressure, digestion, sleep quality, vision and perceived calmness. This sometimes happens within just a few minutes. The vagus nerve, which makes this possible, is therefore often referred to today as the "self-healing nerve". You can find out how this works here.

This is the motto of the weekly dance evening at The Berghof Bar. Always on Wednesdays, starting at 9:30 p.m. we swing to live music from the "Swing Trio", for the sake of the good old days. Put everyday life on the back burner. Dance your head off. Celebrate the good sides of life.
Where: Der Berghof, Lech
No registration required!
- 21:30 Live Music at the Cottage
Every Wednesday from 9.30pm you can dance to live music in the cottage.
Come by, the team of the Cottage is looking forward to seeing you!
Open daily from 6pm to 3am!

Exhibition "Tom Vau - The Fragmentation of the Mountains"

Exhibition "Tom Vau - The Fragmentation of the Mountains"

In this project "The Fragmentation of the Mountains", the Arlberg with all its alpine diversity and its roughness but also soft silhouettes are depicted as line drawings and painted fragments. Hence all elevations appear altered, in an artificial but formal language, creating new perspectives on the respective landscape.

Exhibition dates: until the end of the winter season 23/24

Opening hours: daily

Where: Hotel madlochBlick
