 Every Sunday, we invite you to join us for lunch that brings back memories – and we mean that literally: hearty classics are served at the 'Rein' – just like at grandma's or mum's, where you share, try and go back for seconds. No frills – just honest, seasonal cuisine accompanied by a large bowl of salad, familiar conversations and lively family gossip. In keeping with the season, our dishes vary from Sunday to Sunday – sometimes hearty, sometimes light, but always cooked with love and served from the Rein. There is always a bowl of fresh salad to go with it – sometimes summery and colourful, sometimes autumnal and aromatic. Further information:
