Monday, 22 June to Friday, 4 September 2026

This summer, the Rote Wand becomes a creative workspace and place of exchange. Artists develop new projects on site, create site-specific works and explore themes connected to the landscape, nature and society.

The focus is not only on the finished artwork, but also on the creative process itself. Visitors are invited to gain insights into the artists' work and experience art as it is created.

Lech Classic Festival

Lech Classic Festival from 02.08. - 09.08.2026

The Lech Classic Festival will once again offer an opulent programme in 2026.

Further information on the programme can be found at <https://www.lechclassicfestival.com>

Soccer Camp

Play like the pros! While you organise your holiday according to your ideas, your children are in the hands of qualified and licensed football coaches. Children and young people between the ages of 6 and 16 can take part in the football school regardless of club or leisure players. The support is provided by licensed coaches and full-time sports pedagogues. The participants follow a complete training plan, which was provided by football and sport teacher, Jovan Radosavljevic.

15:00 - 18:00Exhibition Lechmuseum - Open the lens! Photography on the Arlberg

Vastness! Grandeur! Snow! Sun! Nature! Freedom!

These are just a few of the buzzwords associated with mountains and skiing. Since the beginning of photography, there have been countless attempts to capture these feelings on photographic paper. The exhibition demonstrates how photography in the Alpine region and tourism have changed.

Lechmuseum in the Huber-Hus, Dorf 26 (near Schlosskopf-Talstation)

Opening times : Thur – Sun, 3pm – 6pm

Entrance fee: Voluntary donations

Exhibition catalogue: 26 euros
